PREDICTS REVOLUTION IN MEXICO IF CORRAL EVER BECOMES PRESIDENT

Mexican Cotton Planter Is Touring His Country Speaking Against Diaz and Corral.

"If Corral is elected president and Diaz should die, it might mean a revolution in Mexico. That is the one thing we want to avoid."

"Corral is the worst person we could have for president. He would be dictator."

"Barbarous Mexico is mostly true from all I have read of the articles. We want to change all that.

"We want peace based on law and not upon the prestige of one man (Diaz)."

"President Diaz has done the best he could under such a system but the system is bad. We do not condemn him but his system."

These are some of the broad statements made today by Don Francisco y Madero, a wealthy cotton planter of San Pedro, Coahuila, Mexico, who arrived Friday night from Sonora, where he attempted to make public speeches in the liberal cause, was hooted by a mob, refused protection by the police, and finally was forced to telegraph to president Diaz for permission to enjoy the right of free speech as guaranteed under the Mexican constitution.

Interfered With by Hoodlums.

Senor Madero, at his own expense, is making a campaign trip through the republic in the interest of the National Anti-Reelectionist party, which is opposing the reelection of president Diaz and vice president Corral. He recently invaded Sonora for the purpose of creating interest in this liberal party, but in Hermosillo, Nogales and other towns found it impossible to continue his speeches because of the disturbance of a mob of hoodlums. He was interfered with in his meeting at Hermosillo and the police force refused to offer him proper protection, he says. He proceeded to Nogales from Hermosillo but when he discovered that the same crowd of hoodlums was on the train, he made no effort to speak in that town but crossed to the American side immediately after his arrival.

While at Alamos, the home of vice president Corral, senor Madero wired to president Diaz for the privilege of free speech, claiming that his speeches were interfered with and that the police offered him practically no protection. Thus, according to his statement, was granted him a message to the authorities from the Mexican government, but he was again interrupted in Hermosillo.

The Anti-Reelectionist party for which the Mexican citizen is working, includes half of the republic of Mexico, he says. Local organizations exist in many of the cities of the republic including Chihuahua and Mexico City. The movement is spreading, he says, and when the convention of the liberal party is held in Mexico City on April 15 to select a candidate against Gen. Diaz for president and also candidates for the other offices, representatives of practically all parts of the republic are expected to attend. Lic. Roque Estrada, who accompanies senor Madero on his trip, is secretary of the party and Lic. Emilio Vasquez is president.

"Personally we are not opposed to president Diaz," senor Madero said today. "He has done the best he can do under his system which is centered in himself, but we condemn the system. We do not want him to pass his power to his successor and for this reason we are opposing his election and that of vice president Corral. Corral is the worst person we could have for president. To elect him president would be a step backward for Mexico. He does not have the qualities that make president Diaz great and he would be a dictator. If Corral is elected we might have a revolution upon the death of Gen. Diaz. It is this that we are seeking to avoid by having peace under the law and not on the prestige of one man."

Will Nominate Candidate.

"At our convention to be held in Mexico City April 15 we expect to name a candidate for president to oppose president Diaz. Who this will be is not yet known."

"Do you expect opposition at your convention?"

"We may be opposed but we will hold our convention," he said with a characteristic shrug of his shoulders. "Friends in El Paso wanted us to hold a meeting here but we do not want to have Mexican politics on American soil. Neither will we have a meeting in Juarez, but we will go to Chihuahua, where we have an organization, and where a meeting has been arranged for Sunday at which I will speak in the interest of the Anti-Reelectionist party."

"Barbarous Mexico."

"Is 'barbarous Mexico,' as printed in the American magazine true?"

"I have not read it all but from what I have read, it is largely true and conditions are described there much as they exist in Mexico. We want to change all that by having the rights of the people under the constitution given to them again. As it is the three departments of the government are now centered in one man which is wrong and opposed to progress."

Senor Madero, accompanied by his wife, Lic. Estrada, his private secretary, will leave this evening for Chihuahua. During the day a number of prominent Mexicans from El Paso and Juarez called on him at his rooms in the Sheldon.

WOMAN SUES A BULL FIGHTER

Wants $30,000 for Working For Him For Eight Years.

Francisco P. Caro, slayer of many bulls but erstwhile saloon keeper, is to employ an American woman, against it. The former bull fighter, and a real Spanish one, too, is being pursued by a woman, and a Spanish woman at that.

Alleging that she has worked for Caro without pay these eight years, Benita Martin, who came to Mexico with the bull stickler, has opened suit in the Juarez court of letters. She asks $30,000 or one half of the interest of the Mocizuma saloon, frequented by the Spanish sojourners of the border city.
